Bull and Oyster Roast Cancellation – As you all are well aware, the Delta, Lamda, and Mu variants have been far more pervasive and have left the fate of the Bull and Oyster Roast in quite the predicament. As we are unsure of the ever changing landscape of local, state, and Federal laws regarding COVID, it has been determined to be in the best interest of the Community to postpone the Bull and Oyster Roast until 2022.

Discussions have begun on the feasibility of a Spring Festival; however, these plans are tentative. We would like to express our sincere gratitude to those who eagerly volunteered for the Roast this year.

- Long time service appreciation

The Election will serve as the last day of Office for Jack Bannister. Starting nearly 20 years ago Jack Bannister has served as a Board member and Vice President of HPCA, providing us with the benefits of his institutional knowledge in Real Estate and his calm, collected demeanor during this exciting election process. If you get a moment to thank him for his volunteer service to our community, please do.
